Readers' Paradise

-Encourage the thirst for reading

READERS CLUB

A Readers Club is a group that meets regularly to read and to discuss what they are reading.

Readers clubs are one way to promote reading. Readers Club is a good way

- to establish a reading habit
- to expose readers to a variety of literature, including advanced reading materials
- to move new readers from "learning" to "reading"
- to promote reading fluency and comprehension
- to promote reading for enjoyment
- to provide a social context for promoting literacy, and
- to teach readers to find information in printed text.
